RESIGNATION TENDERED.

Rev. W. C. Clemens, who has been the pastor of the Presbyterian Church and principal of the Male and Female High School, this city, for nearly three years, tendered his resignation last Wednesday evening at prayer-meeting and will leave for Elizabethton, Tenn., about the first of July, having accepted a call to preach for the church at that place. Rev. Clemens is a very excellent gentleman and of a fine character of ability, and is very much liked in Columbia, not only by his own flock, but by all the different denominations, and the announcement of his contemplated departure will be received with regret by the people of Adair county generally. Mrs. Clemens, who is a lady of culture, possessing a pleasing disposition, will be very much missed in the church work and in the social circle. Wherever she goes she makes true and lasting friends.

The interesting family of boys—Bert, Fred, Harold and Willis, who are neighbors from the marble yard, and Harold, the little six year old, sharp as a tack, and just as cute as he looks, will give up his job, catching papers from the press of the News and will win in Tennessee, and some day make a dust in the world. Mr. and Mrs. Clemens and the little Clemens' here in our city and may prosper and attain.

JAMES M. HURDLEY DEAD.

The subject of this sketch was one of the best citizens of Adair county, law abiding, industrious and a good neighbor. He was eighty years old, and while not a member of any religious organization, he believed in the Baptist doctrine and attended services regularly while in health. Some time before the end came he announced that he was at peace with his maker, a believer in his Savior, and was ready for the summons. The remains were buried on his late home place, many friends being present. To our knowledge, the deceased leaves two sons, one in Washington, D. C., the other in Moody, Texas.

For a Pleasant Ride You Must Have a LIGHT RUNNING BUGGY.

The Lyon Buggy Company, Campbellville, Keep Them in Stock.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Rounds and her club at the court house last Thursday evening was quite a treat to lovers of music, instrumental and vocal. The court room was fairly well filled, and the good attention paid the performers, was an evidence that the exercises were highly appreciated. Mrs. Rounds, in making up her program, selected a number of old, soul-stirring pieces, carrying many in the audience back to the days of "Auld Lang Syne." The program was lengthy, and the performers would take up too much space. Suffice it to say, that all who took part acquitted themselves in a manner to be appreciated. Mrs. Rounds is thankful to the Columbia Brass Band for assistance.

The Larue County Herald, speaking from age and experience, says: "It was Lincoln who said: 'a house divided against itself cannot stand,' and the Sweet Singer of Israel gave utterance to a kindred sentiment when he exclaimed: 'Behold how good and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!' In union alone we hope to find strength, and jealousy, bickering and unfair rivalry can result only in loss and harm to those who indulge them. Let us, all, therefore, pool all distracting issues and as one man press steadily forward toward one common object, the civic betterment of our town, and the rendering of pleasant and profitable service to our patrons and friends."

Insure The Farmers Home Insurance Company, of Junction City, Ky. The only company in the State that makes any claim of paying the loss in full.

FOR THE HOME COMING.

The Committee on arrangements for Home Coming week met and appointed the following precinct Committees, who will appoint Maids of Honor from their precinct:
Geo. T. Rodgers, Milltown.
W. M. Wilmore, Gradyville.
R. L. Campbell, Dirigo.
J. W. Sublett, Cave Valley.
Gus Jeffers, Casey Creek.
J. M. Campbell, Pellyton.
W. B. Tarter, Little Cakes.
J. E. Womack, White Oak.
G. A. Bradshaw, Glascoff.
W. H. Hammond, Harmony.
W. S. Pickett, Keltner.

The following order was made by the county Judge and approved by the members of the Fiscal court last Friday:

"Ordered by the court that Junius Hancock Judge of Adair county, will extend a general invitation to all persons formerly of Adair county to visit Kentucky at Home coming week at Louisville in June and that they be invited to visit Adair county at the Adair county Home coming week immediately after the service at Home coming week at Louisville, and the said invitation be printed in each of the Newspapers in Columbia, Ky.
JUNIOUS HANCOCK, Judge.

"That is a real nice Buggy you have."
"Yes, I bought it from The Lyon Buggy Company, Campbellville."

It will be gratifying to the patrons of the Male and Female High School to know that Prof. Ohlenschlaeger and Miss Margaret Taylor have been retained for the next school year. As a teacher of music Prof. Ohlenschlaeger has but few equals. His work is thorough and pupils advance rapidly under him. Miss Taylor teaches in the primary department and is also an instructor in elocution. She is well-fitted for the work, is talented, and is very much liked by the Board of Managers and all the pupils who have been in her departments.

It is a courtesy to your guest to see that their names appear in the local newspaper. It is due to your friends and yourself that when visiting, their names should appear in the paper. Some one in the family should inform the newspaper of sickness in the home. Remember that the Newspaper is made by human hands and brains, and if the item concerning yourself or your friends does not appear it is largely your fault. No newspaper worker is omnipresent.

The woods caught fire in the Neatsville country last Thursday, doing a great deal of damage. Mr. I. C. Harmon, who was in Columbia, Friday stated that he lost much of his fencing and a number of valuable trees were burned. Several of Mr. Harmon's neighbors also sustained losses.

Mr. J. B. Coffey has received a letter from Mr. F. J. Allen, General Manager of the Danville and Scottsville Railroad that his corps of engineers are now on the line and that the start was made from McKinney, Ky., and that he would reach Columbia this week.

Mr. S. H. Mitchell was in Columbia Friday. He stated that he had grazed his alfalfa two or three times and all present it was twelve inches high. He says that alfalfa is a fine feed and is but little trouble to cultivate.

The many friends of "Uncle" Perry Hancock will be sorry to learn that he is lying very low at his residence near Columbia. He was 91 years old the 28th of last March. He is receiving the closest attention and the people throughout Adair county are anxious concerning him.

Hon. E. L. Dohoney, of Paris, Texas, writes Gov. J. R. Hindman that he will be here at the Home Coming, the 19th of June. Hon. J. F. Read, of Ft. Smith, Ark., and J. G. Whitney, Evansville, Ind., are confidentially expected.

Woods caught fire in the Sanp country last Wednesday night, a number of farmers losing fencing and other property. "Water" Bryant, who lives near Columbia, lost quite a number of staves.

It is now the 2nd day of May and the fruit not hurt.

THE MATCH GAME OF BALL.

The Lindsay-Wilson grounds were well-covered with ladies and gentlemen last Saturday afternoon to witness a match game of ball between the Lebanon team and the college team. Unusual interest was manifested by the spectators, and at the same time both teams seemed in fine time. The first two or three innings closed with only a score to the side, but at the beginning of the fourth inning the Lebanon boys got in a run, making seven scores, this threw them far ahead, somewhat frustrating our boys, and it was soon evident that the visiting club would come out victorious. However, the home team did some good playing toward the wind up, the game closing 18 to 12 in favor of Lebanon.

RECEITALS.

Miss Dimple Conover, pupil of Mr. Ohlenschlaeger, will appear before the public in her first Recital Saturday evening, May 5th, 1906. Miss Conover is already classed as one of the most talented musicians in Columbia, and the occasion of her first Recital is anticipated with much pleasure by her many friends.

Miss Conover will be assisted by Miss Minnie Kemp, soprano, also a pupil of Mr. Ohlenschlaeger.

The pupils of Miss Taylor and Mr. Ohlenschlaeger of the M. and F. College, will give a Recital, Friday evening, May 4th. The programme promises to be an interesting one, and the people of Columbia are most cordially invited to attend. The programme begins promptly at 8 o'clock.

THE LYON BUGGY COMPANY, Campbellville, Ky.

Work in the cemetery began last Monday morning and will proceed until that plot of ground is cleared from honey suckle and other obnoxious vines, shrubs and weeds. Mr. Horace Jeffries is in charge of this work, and requests that the owners of lots come forward and put them in neat condition at once. The fact is, there is not a day to lose if you mean to have your plot of ground in nice condition by June the 15th. Clean off your lot at the earliest day possible, fix up the graves of the loved ones, and in so doing you will not only feel better yourself, but all your friends will likewise feel good. The cemetery has too long been neglected, and it is but fitting that it be put in the very best condition possible, since so many will soon return to the old home country. The town can not do more than clean the ground and fix up the graves under its care, and unless the owners of lots put their plots of ground in nice condition the cemetery will look ragged and neglected after all. It is highly important that every lot owner attend to this at once.

Mr. Lee J. Taylor, of Camp Knox, who spent 14 months in the Lindsay-Wilson in this town, and later took a course in the Bowling Green Business College, left this Tuesday morning for St. Louis. Mr. Taylor accepts a position as book-keeper and collector for the firm of Hannibal Bros., Ice and Coal Co., of that city. His many friends here are glad that he has secured such a good position for he is one of our most competent and trustworthy young men.

The following are the officers of the new bank to be started at Cave Valley: S. F. Rika, President.
G. F. Rika, Vice President.
O. W. McClester, Cashier.
A. T. Tupman.
R. A. Poole.
Horace Masie.
W. N. Smith.
Dr. D. E. Atkinson.
N. M. M. Hancock.
Jake Baul.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.

At the morning service next Sunday the pastor will preach on the subject, "After Easter." At the evening service he will preach the second in a series of sermons on "Civic Righteousness."
A. R. Kany.

Mr. John Wallace has embarked in the laundry business, having leased Mr. Edwin Hurt's interest in the outfit here.

Mr. H. C. Fesse has the contract to build Mr. Geo. F. Stults residence. It is to be a handsome and commodious building.

Mr. Geo. F. Stults and wife, have taken rooms at the residence of Mr. Z. M. Staples where they will reside until Mr. Stults completes his residence.

WANTED.—A first class man to act as agent for a monument house. Address M. J. METCALF, Lebanon, Ky.

Grand Master James Garnett has issued an address, calling upon all Masonic Lodges of the State to contribute to the San Francisco suffrage.

There will be a singing at Cave Valley, next Sunday, the 6th of May, beginning promptly at 2 P. M. Will be conducted by W. E. Stapp.

Misses Rosa Emma and Mary Gogins Hunter, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hunter, will graduate from Masonic Institute, Richmond, Ky., this month.

An ice plant ought to be in full bloom with plenty of cold and refreshing product to cool the parched tongue and quench the thirst of the many friends who will be in Columbia, June the 19th.

A crib containing about 40 barrels of corn and several sets of harness, the property of Mr. Sam Royce, was consumed by fire last Friday. It is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

The annual convention of the Christian churches of the Columbia District composed of Adair, Cumberland, Metcalfe and Russell counties will meet at Burkesville, Ky., May 24 at 7:30 P. M. and continue over Sunday.

Mr. Leslie Powell has charge of the produce business of Mr. Sam Lewis while the latter is traveling. Mr. Powell will treat the trade in a gentlemanly and courteous manner and the people will make no mistake in dealing with him.

NOTICE.

Four monuments that sold at $75 can now be bought at $60; four that sold for $25 now $20, one that sold at $80 now $65. When these are closed out no more can be had at these prices.

COAKLEY & SIMMS BROS.

The many friends and relatives of Mrs. Victoria G. Donan, wife of Dr. D. C. Donan, Three Springs, Hart county, will be pleased to know she passed a successful examination before the Kentucky State Board of Pharmacy, Louisville, April 10. She was born and partly reared at Gradyville.

The banquet meeting at Shiloh last Sunday was largely attended. Rev. W. G. Montgomery preached two good sermons in the grove. Mr. R. L. Campbell and J. S. Stapp furnished splendid music. There was a beautiful dinner prepared, and was enjoyed by all present. Three confessions during the day.

NEW FAMILY GROCERY.

Geo. W. Staples has just opened a family grocery in the business house next to Paul's Drug store. He has a clean, fresh stock and invites your trade. Everything that a family uses is kept in stock. If you can't call at the store, use the phone, his No. is 95.

24-31

I feel so thankful for the great kindness shown me in my recent bereavement by everyone who knew my husband. The people of both Wayne and Russell counties have demonstrated how much they loved him by their deep grief for him, and their great kindness to those he left behind. I also deeply appreciate the many kind letters of condolence received from Columbia and many other places.

MRS. SOPHIA H. STONE.

PREACHING NEXT SUNDAY.

J. L. Atkins, Zion.
W. H. C. Sandigo, Union.
A. R. Kany, Columbia.
W. A. Grant, Neshaburg.
G. T. Wilson, Fickens Chapel.
T. J. Campbell, Glascoff.
F. J. Barger, Beach Grove.
L. T. Williams, Cave Valley.

PAID LIST

The News Honor Roll—"Is Your Name Written There?"

The following are paid subscribers since our last issue:

Dr. S. P. Miller, Albert Johnson, G. W. Curry, W. G. Coffey, J. J. Simpson, H. C. Walker, J. R. White, I. C. Harmon, T. W. Dowell, R. O. Clemens, John Q. Alexander, Mrs. J. W. Judd, R. L. Purdy, Geo. Roberts, E. D. Compton, L. Burchett, W. C. Grider, Sam Taylor, R. A. Walker.

Last Sunday was Rev. J. P. Scruggs' last day here as pastor of the Baptist Church. He preached two very interesting sermons, the church being filled with friends. The other denominations in town through respect for the retiring minister, dismissed their congregations, everybody worshipping with the Baptist. As has been heretofore stated the departure of Rev. Scruggs and his estimable wife is very much regretted.

The property left by the late Judge J. W. Butler was appraised last Monday by Z. M. Staples, E. W. Reed and J. O. Russell. The valuation, which they consider reasonable and just, stood up at $19,600.

Had a Chose Cell. "A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip was prevented by application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stidol, of Milltown, W. Va. "For instant use of the Salve, I completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at T. E. Paul, drugist.

A VERIFICATION OF PROPHECIES.

Here are Spangler's prophecies for 1906, published at the beginning of the year in the New York World:

The dissolution of Russia.
The overthrow of Turkey.
The assassination of the Czar of Russia.

The assassination of the Sultan of Turkey.

The prevention of three wars by President Roosevelt.

A protracted race war in the South.

Destructive Spring floods in the United States.

A destructive eruption of Mt. Vesuvius.

The activity of Mount Pelee and Popocatepetl.

Volcanic eruptions in all parts of the world.

The eruptions of many volcanoes now supposed to be extinct.

Great loss of life at sea by storms.

Destruction of two Western cities by cyclones.

Earthquakes in all parts of the world.

Destructive earthquakes in California and the Philippines.

Rebellion in Spain.

Great disturbances all over Europe.

The Summer of 1906 will be hot and sultry throughout the temperate zone, with extensive death rate.

Christ will make his spirit felt among the people of the United States and England, in which countries there are to be fervent religious and political movements which are to overcome in a great degree, the present spirit of graft and commercialism.

The United States will continue as a world power, and the leader of other nations.

Pennsylvania is to have an administration of the people and that discoveries of corruption will be discovered which will drive some of the guilty to suicide.

God will wreak terrible vengeance upon the Russians for the massacre of the Jews.

MARRIAGE AND COLORS.

Here's the old superstition which the Easter bride, who fortunately is always married in white, may take for what it is worth.

Married in gray you will go far away.

Married in black, you will wish yourself back.

Married in brown, you will live out of town.

Married in red, you will wish yourself dead.

Married in pearl, you will live in a whirl.

Married in green, ashamed to be seen.

Married in yellow, ashamed of your fellow.

Married in blue, he will always be true.

Married in pink, your spirits will sink.

Married in white, you have chosen aright.

Watch For It.

It will pay you to watch for the very first symptom of indigestion or liver trouble and to prevent the trouble from gaining headway, by quickly taking Dr. Caldwell's (Assative) Syrup Pepsin. Nothing is more weakening to the system than chronic dyspepsia, and all its complications. Nothing will cure it so quickly, pleasantly and surely as Syrup Pepsin. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page and Moore, Care Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

SENTENCE SERMONS.

Only weariness can sweeten rest.

To revenge a wrong is to repeat it.

Where no love is lost no life is found.

Souls are not cemented by soft solder.

You never find truth by losing the temper.

Straight lacing will not cure crooked living.

Delight is never found in flight from duty.

Fruits of faith come from roots in character.

There are no riches where the heart can find no rest.

He seals himself to-night, who sins against the light.

Only through personal character comes permanent civilization.

He cannot control the output of his life who does not guard its inlets.

A man is often best known for the things he thinks he keeps to himself.

There is no virtue in the good turn that you hope to turn into a good trade.—(Chicago Tribune).

MUSINGS OF THE GENTLE CYNIC.

Charity is often kept in the family.

In Russia the way of the transgressor is Czarred.

The cheery individual is not necessarily broad-minded.

In a poker game, giving the glad hand is never intentional.

A prude is generally a young girl who knows entirely too much.

Anticipation is the pleasure we get from things that don't exist.

Truth and popularity are not always good friends.

Borrow trouble and you will be paying interest on it for the rest of your life.

The longest way round has its short-comings.

A rose by any other name would have its thorn.

Even an idea will seldom strike a man when he is down.

The breath of scandal is the ill wind that blows nobody good.

Before you give a man advice, be sure you know the kind he wants.

A young man marvels the first time he makes a fool of himself, but he soon gets used to it.

You can't always preserve a reputation by marking it: "Handle with care."

The girl who sets her heart on a Reginald or an Archibald generally ends by marrying a Bill or a Tom.—(New York Times).

FACTS ABOUT THE DISASTER.

A GENEROUS PEOPLE.

The hope that San Francisco had seen the end of its losses through the fire that for three days had been sweeping across three-fourths of the city was dissipated last night, when a fierce wind gave new vitality to the flames and the work of destruction was made complete in all but a small part of the residence section. There is still hope, amounting almost to confidence, that this much of the city will be saved. If the hope is realized a new San Francisco will grow into strength and greatness from the ashes of the old, for the same spirit that made a greater Chicago and a greater Baltimore through suffering has made itself felt in every step of the brave fight that San Francisco has so far made unsuccessfully.

If anything is left to start on, the work of rebuilding will be shortened. If nothing is left, the work will be slower, but it will nevertheless be undertaken and accomplished. Great in itself, great in its calamity, the pity and admiration of the people of a great country will give to San Francisco every encouragement in the way of sympathy and money. The city of New York has already given $1,000,000 to match the million voted by Congress. Cities of the South like Charleston and Atlanta have given $5,000 each. Louisville will give $10,000. Greater cities like Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and Baltimore will give hundreds of thousands. Men of wealth are giving generously of their individual means. Even such corporations as the Standard Oil are doing their part. The railroads are in the forefront of the movement for immediate relief, and people of smaller means in every part of the country are giving twice by giving quickly. The disaster has been unparalleled in the history of the country. It has awakened an unparalleled generosity.—Louisville Times.

THE COURSE OF EMPIRE.

Nowhere in all the country has recent financial and industrial development been so marked as in the South. The agricultural and commercial activity and general prosperity of the South today, as shown by carefully gathered data transcend the statistics of the entire country thirty years ago. No other section has made an advancement during the past quarter of a century that has been quite so phenomenal. The South today as compared with her condition at the close of the Civil War, presents such rapid strides in material and civic development as are recorded nowhere else in the history of nations.

Her 25,000,000 people are alive to her growing interests and demands and astir with the new life that springs from an effusion of possibilities. All the pent up enthusiasm of this favored land seems about to burst forth in one mighty current of substantial and economic progress.

In agricultural productions the South has never had a rival in this country. The North and East have been able to boast of their manufactures and commerce, and the West of its mines and timbered and grazing interests; but in the products of the soil, the fertility and climate of the South have placed her easily at the head of the American procession from the earliest day of her settlement.

But the end is not here. Last year the South mined 70,000,000 tons of coal, 9,244,000 tons of coke, produced 42,495,000 barrels of oil and made 3,100,000 tons of pig iron. Many a nation has grown vain over a mineral production not half so magnificent.

She has over $225,000,000 of home capital invested in cotton mills alone, her annual lumber income exceeds $250,000,000, while her farm products every season reach the dazzling aggregate of $1,750,000,000. These are empire building figures. No sane man, even prompted by rankling jealousies and sectional prejudice, can turn up his nose in the face of old facts and impartial figures. The course of empire is southward. Every year sees a constant stream of energy and a corresponding wave of development steadily pouring in that direction. The Nation cannot blind itself to the superior opportunities and munificent resources of the South. Her rich alluvial soil, salubrious atmosphere, soft climate and wealth of natural advantages combine to make up a whole approaching the incarnation of the ideal.

Yet with all this the South has been content with the consciousness of her own intrinsic worth and his neither courted nor countenanced flirtation with other sections. She has even been modest and charitable, claiming not her own. But in courage she has not been lacking. Hers has been a conservative loyalty, a fealty that has adjusted itself to the soil that gave it birth, and has shown its teeth only when trampled upon. But new conditions are confronting her. The demand for more positive and aggressive movement increases with the passing years, and the voice of her resources and latent possibilities, that so long have cried out for development, is heard no longer in vain. There is every reason to believe that the South stands on the threshold of an industrial and commercial development such as the world has never seen, and that she will rapidly take the lead along other substantial lines as she has long dominated the entire country in the vast and splendid productions of the soil.—[Elizabethtown News.

WEDDING RING FINGER.

The universal acceptance among civilized nations and from time immemorial of the third finger of the left hand as the "wedding-ring finger" is regarded by most people as the blind following of a custom which was inaugurated by whim or chance, but that it has a deeper significance than mere sentiment and a scientific cause for its selection appears from what was said by a member of the Philosophical Society the other day in a desultory discussion of the subject. The third finger is the only one where two principal nerves, belonging to two distinct nerve trunks, meet. The thumb, fore-finger, middle finger and one side of the third finger is supplied from the radial nerve, while the other side of the third finger and the little finger are supplied from the ulnar nerve. At the tip of the third finger a union of the two nerves takes place, so that this finger is scientifically typical of matrimony.—Philadelphia Record.

Clean House To-day.

Don't wait till to-morrow, but clean house today, with Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Of course we mean your house of flesh and bone—your body. This is the best house you own, and should get the most care. Yet most people neglect it in a dreadful manner. As a result, stomach, liver, and bowels soon get out of order, and cause great pain, distress and dangerous internal diseases. The only safe, sure cure, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It clears out all causes of sickness, cures constipation and indigestion, cleans house and makes you well. Try it. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page and Moore, of Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson says that crop failures are a thing of the past. Owing to the work and discoveries of the agricultural department he says early or late frosts, excessive rainfall, grasshoppers, rust, drought, insect pests, unfertile soil, unfavorable climate, have all been overcome, and that in 1910 the crop yield will be twice what it was last year. No doubt Secretary Wilson believes all he says but the surest way for him to be undecieved is to buy a farm and try to make a living.

The Republicans of New York State are divided in the opinion of what to do with Odell, the chairman of the Republican state committee. The faction that follows the President demands that he be thrown out, and another faction is inviting him to retire gracefully. Still another faction favors him retention. This should be a lesson to the Democrats to get together and put their best man forward.

The White House cook, since the beef trust magnates were set free by the court, dare not send up a rare roast to the dinner table, as the memory of the Beef Trust Magnates' victory makes the President want them and their products thoroughly roasted.

So far as curiosity goes, the families of public men are often more interested in what is said of them than are the public men themselves. Many person holding office have ordered The Democrat to gratify the interest of the family and friends.

A rather cunning remark was made by a small boy in a district school recently, when the teacher had been encouraging his class of boys. "Study your lessons, learn everything you can," and some day you will all be great men," predicted the professor. But Jamie declared there was only one thing he wanted to be and that was president, and "I'm not likely to ever get elected" he said, "Because I'm a Democrat."

A NEW YORK BOOM FOR BRYAN.

A Bryan boom for the Presidential nomination of the Democratic party in 1908, backed by the conservative Democracy of New York, is one of the possibilities of the present political situation. Mr. Bryan recently contributed to one of the magazines an article on Socialism in which he proclaimed himself an individualist, and contended with his characteristic zeal for the individualistic theory of civilization. Such papers as the New York Times were enthusiastic in their praise of Mr. Bryan's position, pronouncing his statement of the case against Socialism as one of the ablest yet presented, and on that will be reason of Mr. Bryan's well-known radical position prove most effective in checking the rising Socialistic tide.

The Democratic Club, the most respectable of the Tammany organizations, whose membership includes the business element of the New York City Democracy, is said to be strongly in favor of the nomination of Mr. Bryan. In Democratic Club circles the opinion is said to become unanimous that Mr. Bryan will soon be recognized as the logical candidate of Democracy in 1908. The Jefferson Day dinner soon to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria is expected to be the occasion of the formal launching of Mr. Bryan's Eastern boom. He is to be referred to as a conservative and some semi-authoritative announcement is to be made to the effect that he is ready to discard the old silver issue. What was regarded as radicalism when Mr. Bryan led the Democratic party according to the new view which is said to be prevailing in the Democratic Club is now considered conservatism, since the radical of to-day have gone so far beyond anything proposed by the Democracy of 1896. Mr. Bryan, it is said, will make a statement of his position as soon as he returns from his Oriental tour, and it is expected that the Democratic Club will give him a great public reception. This, in view of the developments of the last two years, is not an unnatural situation. According to the standards of to-day Mr. Bryan is really a conservative.—Lexington Herald

MEDICINE AND THEOLOGY.

The following story was told by John L. Mahin, in a recent address of the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, now of Brooklyn, when he was pastor of Central church, Chicago:

Dr. Hillis had a number of doctors in his Chicago congregation. It was a fashionable church, but it didn't get Dr. Webster. He didn't go to church at all, but had the reputation of "making good" in his practice. Mrs. Hillis was taken sick one day, and became so very sick that her husband didn't want to take any chances, so he sent for Dr. Webster. He came, took care of Mrs. Hillis and she recovered. Dr. Hillis called and said to the physician: "Doctor, I owe you a great deal. I would like to know the amount of your bill. I will pay you $50 on account to-day and the rest as soon as I can, but I want to know the total amount, so that I can make arrangements to do so."

Dr. Webster looked at him for a minute, and his characteristic reply showed his appreciation of Dr. Hillis, who "made good" in his own line, for he said: "I will tell you what I will do. I will keep Mrs. Hillis out of heaven as long as I can, and you keep me out of hell as long as you can."

Hazing in colleges run for many years unchecked until it was exposed to the public view by the seriousness of its application in several particulars, and when viewed from the standpoint of fair treatment, safety to those subjected to its torturing and humiliating effects, our entire country spoke in no uncertain tones. The various institutions throughout the country undertook to stamp it out and have succeeded to a remarkable degree. The truth is that there was no ground on which it could be defended, morally, socially or physically, and when its enormity had been opened up, the good in Americans asserted itself in such a powerful way as to mark the hazing as barbarous and unworthy a position in any class in our great schools. Generally, hazing was not of vicious intent, but of mere levity, yet, it grew in prevalence and degree until it resulted in the loss of life and seriously reduced the standing of certain schools that permitted it to be carried to the danger point. In view of the course of college hazing it seems strange that gulling is carried to such an extent in base ball games, which, in reality, is but a form of hazing. The fact is that base ball is highly interesting and is a popular sport, one in which all classes and all occupations find pleasure in witnessing, but the excess of gulling is fast divesting this sport of its real charms, and if kept up and permitted to grow its intensity and ridiculousness will eventually make it a game for the rough only. It seems that each season brings a larger number of ball hazers and the later their advent into the ring of the disgust the more force they give to their brawls and the more disgusting epithets are used. This paper takes the position that a visiting team is an invited guest and deserves courteous treatment and in so far as it fails to receive it, stigmatizes the community as pandering to the rougher element and not mindful of the comfort and pleasure of their visitors. Gulling has no good connected with it. It does not tend to create love and respect between the teams, but to wound the feeling, excite resentment and broaden and deepen the feeling that usually exists between two towns or communities. To say the very best that can be said from our view, is, that it is inexcusable, disgusting and pure and unadulterated rowdiness, exerting itself where no amount of courage could successfully meet it by a visiting team. The language ordinarily used is neither instructive nor edifying and sober minded people. Ladies and children are to stand the brawl if they witness a game. To the point: It is time for the management of base ball games to demand better conduct from the over-enthusiastic and smart Alexes who attempt to be wise and witty, powerful and biting while brawling through paper horns. The game last Saturday between Lebanon and Lindsay-Wilson was no exception in amount of gulling and general demenor; that confronts a visiting team in any part of the country. We have ample reasons to know that the epithets pitched at the visiting team was not appreciated by the best citizenship of this town and we believe that we voice the sentiment of the entire community when we state that the treatment given them was below the dignity of Columbians in general.

Bellevue, Texas, was swept from the map last Thursday night by a tornado. Eleven persons were killed. Loss of property $150,000.

The Sixteenth annual meeting of the United Confederate Veterans was held at New Orleans last week. The old officers were reelected. The next meeting will be Richmond Va.

Again we call attention to the opening for an ice plant in Columbia. Here is a town of 1,200 people, surrounded by a thickly settled and a well to do people, 40 miles away from ice. Not one pound of ice was stored away last winter and the use and demand for it increasing all the time. It seems to us that a small plant could be made profitable and besides the good to come to the parties operating it would be a great luxury for this entire part of the country. Mr. Myres, the mill man, has ample power; he is close to water and his location, is an ideal one for making, storing and selling it. Why not organize a company and manufacture the ice instead of buying it 40 miles from home, to come to the consumer at such a price as to have only one cold drink per week. Some time ago Mr. Myres had under consideration the above proposition but it seems to have faded from the calendar of things expected. Gentleman of the town, who are able to aid such an enterprise, why not join in this proposition with Mr. Myres?

FROM TENNESSEE.

Knoxville, April 25th, 1906. EDITOR NEWS:

I will write a few lines about Knoxville and East Tennessee. If its worth printing you are at liberty to publish it, if not, pitch it in the waste basket.

Savoyard in the Washington Post a few days ago called East Tennessee the Switzerland of America. This may be a little exaggeration, but to my mind it is a very beautiful country as well as a country of great resources. It is rich in copper, lead, zinc and coal. The soil in many places is rich and has some fine timber. The scenery is beautiful. From several places about Knoxville you can see the smoky mountains on the line between Tennessee and North Carolina.

Real estate seems to be comparatively cheap. We sold a man 83 years old, 8 acres on the Rutledge Pike, 5 miles from Knoxville, a few days ago for $500. It was strong land and ready for cultivation. Knox county has many beautiful pikes leading in all directions, beside three railroads and many bridges. The Tennessee river is navigable for boats all the year.

The city of Knoxville has a population of 60,000 and is growing steadily. The climate is one of the finest in the world. There are men here 75 and 80 years old who are as active as many in Adair county, who are only 50 or 60. Knoxville has seven banks, some of them capitalized at $300,000. The street railway reaches out to suburbs 4 and 5 miles away. The public library has about 14,000 volumes.

There are many churches and schools here. In the first M. E.

LINCOLN SQUIRREL

This Horse will make the season at our barn in Columbia at $70 to insure a living colt. In all cases when the mare is traded, removed from the neighborhood or bred to other stock, the money becomes due and must be paid at time of said transaction. 22

Coffey Bros.,

Columbia : : Kentucky.

Church I noticed a marble slab on the wall a few days ago with the following inscription: "William Gauaway Brownlow, born August 18, 1805; died December 23, 1879. Governor of Tennessee two terms. United States Senator one term. Editor and Founder of the Knoxville Whig. Honest in purpose, strong in conviction, and fearless in action." These last three phrases especially impressed me.

Admiral David G. Farragut, one of the great naval captains of the world, was born just a few miles down the river from Knoxville. His birthplace was visited by Dewy a few years ago.

There are some very fine lawyers in Knoxville. Several of them have written books which are used very much in the courts of Tennessee.

Much more could be written, but I guess this is enough for the present.

Now as to myself, I have not made a fortune yet and don't expect to soon, but I know I am making more money than I could in Columbia and the prospect seems to be fine to make more. I expect to square up every cent I owe before many months and be well established in business. I am more and more delighted with the country. I like it better than any of the 13 states, two territories and the dominion of Canada that I have visited or passed through.

Any time my Kentucky friends are passing through Knoxville I will be glad to have them call on me at room 408 Empire Building during the day or at the Central Y. M. C. A. Building at night.

Respectfully,
W. D. JONES.

STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

To the County Judge of Adair: Dear Sir:—The State Board of Equalization has given to the "Tabulated List of Transfers" and "Recapitulation Sheets" from your county its most thorough examination and intelligent consideration. ## Jordan Peacock---The Greatest Horse

In Kentuck

JORDAN PEACOCK will make the present season at Gradyville, Kentucky, and will serve mares at $15 to insure a living colt one week old. If any mare should lose a colt by carelessness or rough treatment then the season is due. Jordan Peacock has sired more high priced colts than any horse in Kentucky. Cotton and mules have their ups and downs but The Peacocks are Always Up—The Horse Buyers are always Looking for Peacocks, and pay from two to three times as much for them as they do any others. Last Fall his Suckling Colts Sold from $100.00 to $135.00; Flowers Bros. sold a 2-year-old mare for $325; a 4-year-old gelding sold March 8, in a pair for $825.00. Did you ever know of any other horses in this part the State that sold for such prices? When you breed to Jordan you are going to get a good Colt and one that's ready money as soon as it hits the ground. There have been some men that have sold their colts as soon as they bred the mares. Now if you want to raise the best, bring your mares to Jordan Peacock.

CAPTAIN PEACOCK, A 3-YEAR-OLD STALLION

By Jordan Peacock and Dam by Colonel Tom, will make the season for $10 to insure. Captain Peacock is the best prospect I have ever seen. He has been shown at the Columbia Fair from a suckling colt up, under halter, single and double, and has worn the Blue every time and has defeated some of the best age horses shown at the Fair.

Bring your mares to my Horses and you are sure to get a colt and a good one.

KENTUCKY KING, one of the finest models in the State, Sired by Red Squirrel No. 53 and out of R. F. Paull's brood mare, will make the present season at my stable and will be permitted to serve mares at $15.00 to insure a living colt, one week old.

PEDEGREE.—Vol. 6, register No. 2278, dam, Maud Coe, No. 2495, by Alexander's Lexington, No. 2208; Second dam, Maud White by Artist, No. 75.

NEWS NOTES.

As a result of a fire in a New York frame flat building, four persons were burned to death.

Eight Philipinos were killed and three American soldiers wounded in a skirmish on the Island of Samar.

William Becker, a wealthy resident, of Milwaukee, committed suicide at Mobile, Ala., because of ill health.

Fire destroyed the acid department of the Home Mixture Gun Company, at Columbus, Ga., causing a loss of $100,000.

Murray is now pretty well supplied with papers. It has the Ledger, the Times, the Neighborhood News and the Daily Free Press.

William Davidson, aged 63, was stricken with heart disease while climbing a stairway in Lexington, and expired in a few minutes.

Two Big-Four trainmen were drowned when a freight train plunged from a steel bridge in Cleves, Ohio, into the Miami river, a distance of 25 feet.

Three men were killed, and five mortally and sixteen seriously injured as the result of a gunnery accident on board the French cadet training ship Couronne, at Toulon.

One of a crowd of white boys armed with clubs and stones, killed John Moore, a negro 16 years of age, in Kansas City. The white boys escaped and are not known.

The union depot at Flomaton, Ala., was destroyed by fire Saturday. Ed Tucker was standing near one of the chimneys after the fire, when it fell, killing him instantly.

The Franklin grand jury, after several weeks' investigation, finds no evidence to substantiate the charges of bribery and corruption in the effort to defeat the rectifiers' tax bill.

The rumors which reached New York of the eruption of the volcano on the island of Krakatoa, in the Strait of Sunday, and of earth shocks in Java appear to have been unfounded.

A man from New Mexico has complained to Federal authorities in Chicago that he was defrauded out of $10,000 by John A. Dowie. A post office inspector is investigating the charge.

English insurance companies will lose most heavily on the fire loss in San Francisco, the heaviest risks being carried by the foreign companies. It is estimated that 93 companies carried risks in that city.

A Times special from Bluefields, W. Va., says John Wilson was killed, and four other men were fatally injured by a premature explosion of dynamite at Bosse Raive, on the Pocahontas railroad now under construction.

In an 18 inning game at Wichita, Kansas, a pitcher fanned 30 opposing batsmen. This beats all world's records for pitching feats. At this rate a twirler could have pitched a 10-inning game with only a catcher to assist him, preventing him from seeing first base.

Cleaned Out.

When a deep cellar becomes filled with heavy, poisonous air it is never safe to go into it until it has been cleaned out. When your body has been poisoned with the foul residues of undigested food, it is just as necessary to clean it out. To do this pleasantly and safely take Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It is a pure scientific preparation which has no equal in the cure of constipation, headache, biliousness and stomach trouble. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, of Columbia, and Page and Moore, Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

HIGH FINANCE.

A Buffalo man stopped a newsboy in New York, saying: See here, son, I want to find the Blank National Bank. I'll give you a half dollar if you direct me to it," according to the American Spectator.

With a grin the boy replied: "All right, come along." And he led the Buffalo man to a building half a block away.

The man duly paid the promised fee, remarking, "That was half a dollar easily earned, son." "Sure!" responded the lad, but you mustn't forget that bank directors is paid high in Noo-Yawk."

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bram Scott is very sick, at this writing.

Uncle Jimmie Gadberr, who is now in his 86th year, is in very feeble health.

J. F. Gilpin sold Parker Jackman, of color, a wagon load of corn at $3.50 per barrel.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me to death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven, permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at T. E. Paul's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

GADBERRY.

We are having some nice weather.

Corn planting is on a boom.

Mrs. Jane Jones, who has been confined to her bed for the past six weeks, is no better.

OBITUARY.

On Friday evening, April 20th, 1906, Wm McDaniel passed over the River—one of Adair's best citizens, and one who was always kind, courteous and civil to all alike; one who had chosen honesty as his companion. He lived in honesty, he embodied it in his actions, his hands were true to it, his feet trod in its paths; to him, it seemed to be a God, and with religious awe he obeyed its behest. A sense of justice was the foundation of his social and religious qualities. In his conversation with the world, no unfairness could be found, and in his life he practiced that sacred rule of doing all things to others as he would have them do to him. Hence, his example should be engraved on all our minds. It was always pleasant for him to look back through the vista of time upon the felicities of his earlier years. His home was one where weary hearts could rejoice; where his placid nature made cheerful hearts; where duty went he went with meekness, charity and love. He was a companion which no fervent heart could reject. He was buried at Bearwallow cemetery Sunday, attended by a large crowd of relatives and friends. I extend my sympathy to the bereaved family. W. S. SALLER.

THE PESSIMIST: HIS VIEWPOINT.

Sermons should be practiced before they are preached.

A reformer's idea of fun is to spoil other people's fun.

No man can fix a clock and at the same time sing a hymn.

Sacrifices on the altar of foolishness never cease for lack of material.

I wonder why they don't charter polygamy under the laws of New Jersey.

There are a great many more fools in the world than they have any idea of.

Sometimes they are editorials, and the rest of the time they are idiotic.

And, oh, if the great problems solved by graduates would only stay solved!

The reason why I am so well is that I have always been too poor to stay long at a health resort.

There are two kinds of women who cannot be reasoned with—the one in love and the one not in love.

The best way to preserve the beauty of a finely shaped nose is to keep it out of other people's business.—Watson's Magazine for April.

STORY OF EARTHQUAKE.

Salt Lake, April 21.—Terrence Owens, Chief of the Denver Fire Department, was an eye-witness to the San Francisco earthquake. The chief, with his wife and young son, arrived here yesterday. They were guests at the Grand Hotel in San Francisco on the morning of the earthquake and after the first shocks escaped to Oakland.

"I happened to be awake when the first shock came," said Chief Owens. "The plaster began to come down around us and the furniture of the room was thrown about."

"My wife sprang up from the bed and a moment after she had quit it a heavy dresser was thrown violently upon it. It would surely have killed her had she remained there. I quickly got my wife and child to the street. Going back, I got our things together and took them down where my wife was. I saw fire burst out a few blocks away. An engine came down and hitched to a hydrant, but seemed to be doing nothing. I asked the engineer what was the matter and he said there was no water. I saw enough in those minutes to convince me the city was doomed."

"I made my way back to my wife and got away. She wanted to go out to Golden Gate Park, but I told her that I believed the city was going and that we must get to Oakland. We arranged to catch the first boat and got over and saw the rest of the fire from a distance."

"Market street, when we got out of the hotel, was in a frightful state. Wires were down, naked and half-naked men and women were running along the streets, cattle and horses were mixed up with the crowd and the scene was one of indescribable confusion. The air seemed to be a sort of bluish yellow. To make matters worse there was the most peculiar smell in the air. The buildings were leaning together in a crazy fashion and debris was falling everywhere."

"I distinctly felt two heavy shocks before we left for Oakland and after we got over to the Oakland side there were two more."

"As we left the 'Frisco side I could see fire in all directions. People whom we met had come for many blocks running to the water front half naked and with bare feet. At that time it was no easy matter to get through the streets for the stuff thrown about by the shock. The sight was the most horrible I ever witnessed and I have seen many fires. Some persons we met were cut about the face and hands by falling glass and others had been hit by stones. None of them seemed to know where they were going, but ran about in every direction."

PEACE IN THE PHILIPPINES.

It is said that not long ago a War Department official was approached by a man who was thinking of moving to the Philippines to enter business.

"I would like to know the status of things there from a reliable source," the man said. "Is there now a condition of peace?"

"Well, not exactly everywhere," the official admitted.

"Could you give me an idea as to when peace will be established?"

"Not off-hand, but you can get the census report and figure it out for yourself," the official said, somewhat bitterly. "We estimate that it requires a man's weight in lead to thoroughly 'pacify' him, and the Quarter-master's office can furnish you with a statement of ammunition shipments."—[Harper's Weekly.

ALL THE MONEY ON EARTH.

Let us see how much actual cash there is in the pocketbooks of various nations, and understand by comparison how rich we really are. The total stock of money in gold, silver and uncovered paper in the whole world amounts, in round figures, to $12,000,000,000. In the United States the total stock of money amounts to about $2,000,000,000. Hence we have in our own purse about one-sixth of all the cash of the globe.

These figures—and this is a fact which must be emphasized—do not represent the wealth of nations. Far from it. These figures represent merely the available hard cash. Divide this hard cash of the earth among the inhabitants thereof, and each man, woman and child would have $10. But divide the hard cash of the United States among the people thereof and each of us would have $25. And here is one respect in which the people of a foreign country would have the better of us, individually.

Were each nation to divide its cash among its own people each living human being in France would have $35, or $10 more than each person in our country under similar circumstances. Meanwhile, the divided cash of Great Britain would give each Briton only $18; in Germany the cash per capita would amount to only $17; Russia, $8, and Japan, $3, while in Cuba each person would get a $2 bill.

Of the world's $12,000,000,000 in cash, $2,000,000,000 are right here in the United States. And one-twenty-fifth of all the cash in gold in the world is stored in New York alone. This gold, this symbol and synonym of wealth, comes, like all things else, from the ground, from mines. Here, again, we lead all nations, for we ourselves produce one-third of all the gold of the earth, as we produce one-third of all the silver.

Our chief contributors to this product are the mines of Colorado, South Dakota, California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Arizona, New Mexico and Alaska. Consider merely Cripple Creek! As under a magician's wand, that region has in fourteen years developed until it now covers at least 150 square miles, with many cities and towns connected one with another by rail. Here is an earnest, sober population, engaged in the business of extracting precious metals from the mountains to the tune, some years, of $23,000,000. So much for the work of man in securing the raw material for money.—[Leslie's weekly.

Misses. Bessie Walker, Mollie Flowers and Clara Wilmore; Jas. Wilmore, Charlie Diddle, Willie Hunter and Paul Wilson, students of Columbia, spent last Saturday and Sunday in our town.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hindman spent last Sunday afternoon with the family of Mr. Sam Mitchell.

J. A. Diddle received a considerable shake-up one day last week by falling out of a tree while preparing to shoot fish on East Fork.

Rich Paul and Lem Smith, of Columbia, were in our town one day last week looking at our fine Horses. Both are good judges of horses and they certainly know where to come to see them. Come again gentlemen.

Mr. Geo. Roberts, formerly of Sparksville, who is now located in Tennessee, was in our midst one day last week and reported that he was engaged in the railroad business. We certainly was glad to meet Mr. Roberts and to know that he had a good position. Here is another Adair county boy that has come to the front. You can't keep them down.

Mr. Thomas Gowen, one of our up-to-day citizens and a good Bible Student, wants to know how many times the word children is mentioned in the Bible. Let us hear from some one.

We are longing and waiting for the proposed railroad. We expect to get the depot. When will the work begin.

Mr. Phil Shirrell, wife and sons are visiting relatives on Green river this week. Mr. Shirrell expects to catch a nice lot of fish while he is gone.

Mr. John M. Wilson, one of our best citizens as well as stock men, lost a very fine mule colt one day last week.

The members of Gradyville Lodge No. 251 of F. & A. M. are requested to be present at our next regular communication which will be Saturday afternoon, the 5th, of May. Please take notice and govern yourselves according.

Mrs. Rounds and her class, of Columbia, gave a musical entertainment here last Friday night. The programme was well rendered and our people were delighted to have them with us. The only thing we regret is that we did not receive the notice in time to give her as large audience as we would have if we had had due notice.

Let Everybody Work.

And the world would be more happy and contented. Just consider how much pain and trouble results in your body when your liver or stomach stop working. Happily, you can soon set them to work again, cure your pains and restore yourself to health and contentment, with Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Try it. Sold by Dr. J. N. Page, Columbia, and Page and Moore, Cane Valley, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

CANE VALLEY.

Hon. Tom Scott, Camp Knox, was here on business last week.

Wm. E. Hancock, Esq., is putting in his full time with his father, who is dangerously ill. We all love Uncle Perry and we are sorry to see him failing. He is a good father, a good husband, a good neighbor and a genuine good old man.

June Hancock has moved his mill from Mr. Carmel to the Fisher Bend on Green river, where he has 200,000 feet of lumber to saw.

Mr. Zach Campbell and Miss Maggie Rubarts, of Pellyton, attended the recital here last Saturday night.

Misses. Emma Thomas and Merv Leftwich, of Milltown, were visiting here last Saturday and Sunday.

Real estate of all kinds jumped 10 per cent. last week.

Mr. J. W. Hutcheson, of Broadhead, a well-known banker, was here several days of last week and organized a bank of $15,000 capital. The building committee has been authorized to build a brick building and a meeting of the stock-holders will elect their officers next Monday evening. Mr. O. W. McAllister, of Shelbyville, will be the cashier.
